I Hate School

Golden, CO (August 23, 2010) - Do your kids have a tough time getting readjusted to school and homework? No need to worry! Love and Logic has the solution. Just in time for back to school, the Love and Logic Institute, Inc. has released "I Hate School" Techniques for Helping Underachieving Kids Fall in Love with Learning, a recording of a live webinar produced last spring by Dr. Charles Fay. This On-Demand Webinar features tips to avoid battles over homework and how to motivate kids who just don't seem to care about school.

Instead of having to take time off work and find a sitter for your kids to attend a seminar, you can view this On-Demand Webinar in the comfort of your own home at a time that works best for you. "I Hate School" is available at loveandlogic.com or by calling 800-338-4065. In addition, Dr. Charles Fay is available for interviews. If interested, contact Maggie Young at 800-338-4065.

The Love and Logic® Institute is dedicated to making parenting and teaching fun and rewarding, instead of stressful and chaotic. They provide practical tools and techniques that help adults achieve respectful, healthy relationships with their children. All of their work is based on a psychologically sound parenting and teaching philosophy called Love and Logic®. For more information visit loveandlogic.com.

Charles Fay, Ph.D. is a parent, author and consultant to schools, parent groups and mental health professionals around the world. His expertise in developing and teaching practical discipline strategies has been refined through work with severely disturbed youth in school, hospital and community settings. Charles has developed an acute understanding of the most challenging students. Having grown up with Love and Logic, he also provides a unique...and often humorous...perspective.
