Morning Session

Monday, June 25th, 2018
8:00 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.

Love and Logic: Hope for Rebellious and Resistant Youth

Join the world-renowned educational experts and inspirational speakers, Jim Fay and Dr. Charles Fay, and they provide practical strategies for:

- Dealing with disrespect & defiance
- Preventing battles over power and control
- Addressing the emotional roots of rebellion and resistance
- Building a positive foundation of dignity, trust and love
- Taming our own emotions while reaching highly emotional kids

Note: Come prepared to laugh while learning life-changing tools.

Charles Fay, Ph.D.

Charles Fay is a parent, internationally known consultant, and author. Thousands of educators, mental health professionals, and parents have profited from his wealth of practical, down-to-earth solutions to the most common and frustrating problems displayed by youth of all ages. These solutions come directly from years of research and experience serving severely disturbed youth and their families in psychiatric hospital, public school, and home settings.

Charles presents Love and Logic seminars and personal appearances throughout the nation. His audiences laugh and learn as they hear stories and examples illustrating his unique perspective on the Love and Logic approach to discipline. Many conference attendees have written comments such as, “The time went so fast…a very entertaining speaker” and “I'm so relieved that he gave us things we can actually use rather than lots of theory and impractical stuff.”

Jim Fay

Jim Fay is one of America's most sought-after public speakers. His dynamic presentations have revolutionized the way professionals and parents approach working with children. He has received international acclaim for his ability to translate theory into practical strategies. People leave his presentations empowered to use his techniques immediately. The most common statement about his techniques is, “They’re easy and they work!” Jim is a prolific writer and producer of training materials as well.

As co-founder of the Love and Logic Institute, Inc., Jim has developed the most extensive collection of training materials focused specifically on a philosophy of working with children. This philosophy is known as Love and Logic. It has fast become the philosophy of choice for professionals and parents who want to teach children to become responsible and resourceful. Jim is a master storyteller who teaches through real-life examples and anecdotes. His audiences marvel at the way time flies while they learn with him. Many participants say, “I just hate to see Jim’s sessions come to an end. I could listen to him forever.”
DAY ONE
CHARLES FAY, Ph.D.
Afternoon Session

Monday, June 25th, 2018
1:00 P.M. - 3:30 P.M.

Unmotivated Kids: Rebuilding the Intrinsic Drive to Learn and Achieve

With his famous blend of humor and story-telling, Dr. Fay shares real solutions for avoiding power struggles while inspiring youth toward life-long success. You will hear techniques for:

- Effectively responding to “I don’t care,” “You can’t make me!” or “I’m stupid.”
- Addressing the social and emotional barriers to motivation and learning
- Helping youth experience that it’s okay to try and rewarding to persevere.
- Building core character attributes rather than entitlement
- Avoiding the trap of working harder on their lives than they do while providing powerful techniques for creating cooperative classrooms and homes.

Brenda Bird, a reformed drill sergeant, has been connecting with students for over 30 years as a secondary teacher, school bus driver, mother, and currently as an English Language Director working with international students. Her session will be filled with tips and tools to set limits with love and apply Love and Logic strategies to the most challenging students. It is those students who most need for us to hold them accountable with loving boundaries and structure to encourage success.

Every interaction with a child is an opportunity to shine life and be constructive or speak death and be destructive. Many teachers who have participated in Brenda’s workshops have said they wish they could “start every day with a dose of Brenda Bird.” Join us as we laugh and learn how to build bridges with Love and Logic and make connections that will change lives.

- Becoming a Transformer
- Sharing Control You Never Had
- Whose Problem Is It Anyway?
- Avoiding the Savior Syndrome
- Replacing Sarcasm with Empathy
- 7 C’s We All Need To Succeed

This session will be repeated on Tuesday morning.
How often do your emotions get in the way of parenting or teaching? What has been the cost of your emotional reactivity in your life? If you could learn to stay calm in the midst of misbehavior, what would it do for your relationships and your confidence?

Come laugh and discover how to...

• utilize seven practical tools to stay calm even in the midst of chaos and misbehavior.
• love and accept your kids for who they are even when they are driving you nuts.
• repair relationships from your emotional reactivity.
• create long-term meaningful connections with your kids.
• create an environment where kids can learn from their misbehavior and not blame you.

This session will be repeated on Tuesday afternoon.

Larry Kerby

Larry Kerby, MBA is a sought after entertaining and engaging speaker. He helps parents and teachers to create more joy, peace and happiness by understanding their role with children. He teaches effective, practical and proven parenting techniques that parents and teachers can take away and start using immediately. He is the author of the "Master Your Emotions" seminar series. Larry is also a trained independent facilitator of the Love and Logic curricula.
Nancy Thomas will keep you on the edge of your seat, spellbound, or falling off it with laughter as she uploads megawatts of solutions. She will crush-it as she shares step by step action plans to calm the chaos with children with RAD, ODD, ADHD, PTSD, OCD and other alphabet soups of disorders. Nancy brings it with answers for the challenging children, their pooped parents and frazzled teachers. Everyone is pulling their hair out! Bald (and hairy) teachers, parents and mental health professionals are welcome to come find out how to:

- Understand the problem
- Not only survive but thrive with a challenging child in the room
- Dance with the defiance and not get your toes stepped on
- Understand what the brain studies are missing
- Quell the storm-filled child
- Create a calm and healthy learning environment
- Halt the hullabaloo and declare a ceasefire
- Conquer the clashes and find peace

As a Professional Therapeutic Parent, Nancy Thomas’ forty years of successful work with traumatized children helped her to develop her program, which is now used in homes, treatment facilities and schools around the world. She has worked tirelessly to improve the lives of children internationally. Her program is acclaimed for helping many types of emotional disorders, including Reactive Attachment Disorder (RAD), Early Childhood Trauma, Asperger's Syndrome (AS), Oppositional Defiant Disorder (ODD), PTSD and Bipolar Disorder. Many of her contemporaries have recognized her for her valiant and dedicated efforts specializing in attachment and conscience development with violent children.

Nancy also gives back to the worldwide community through the nonprofit group she founded, Stop America's Violent Youth (SAVY, Inc). She directs Family Bonding Camps for families with challenging children, and also conducts seminars and workshops to empower educators, parents, and mental health professionals.

Beyond an introduction to “Options to Anger”. This cognitive behavioral intervention strategy was developed and researched through years of experience working with juvenile offenders. It has been adapted for successful use in schools, community centers, parenting programs, and detention facilities.

Skills taught in this training will include:

- Understanding the invitations that lead to anger
- Recognition of anger’s early warning signs
- Courageous ways to “get off the road to anger”
- Physical relaxation techniques
- Strategies to effectively “slow down” the anger process
- Tools to maintain respect for self and others in conflict situations
- Techniques for expression of feelings
- Practical techniques for teaching these useful skills

In a dynamic and frequently humorous fashion, John will provide an overview of a nationally recognized cognitive behavioral intervention model that impacts adolescent and family anger. He will utilize a mix of direct instruction, role-plays, and dialogue with audience members; using visual aids to inspire hope, and renewal, among persons engaged in the challenge of work with angry and violence-prone youth and families.
DAY TWO

Love and Logic for School Leaders:
Creating a Love and Logic School Culture

This session is for formal and informal school leaders who want to create a school where teachers treat kids with respect, students love and respect their teachers and learning isn’t derailed by constant disruptions.

Hear how to:

- Develop your core beliefs.
- Train the staff.
- Motivate negative teachers.
- And much more!

Attend this session if you want down-to-earth strategies for managing your team.

Pre-Registration is required.
Seating is limited.

Chris Burr
Nearly twenty years ago, as a new teacher, and a young parent of two, Chris had the first of many opportunities to listen while Jim Fay taught Love and Logic to an audience full of learners. Through his career as a teacher, building administrator, and now superintendent, Chris has dedicated himself to a deeper understanding of Love and Logic, and how to help children and adults alike take ownership of their successes, and their failures. For more than twelve years, Chris has been facilitating Love and Logic through the 9-essential skills training, with many schools, and hundreds of parents, teachers, and school staff members. Chris believes strongly in the principles of Love and Logic as the healthiest way to long-term positive behaviors and relationships for children, and for the adults that care for them.
Brenda Bird, a reformed drill sergeant, has been connecting with students for over 30 years as a secondary teacher, school bus driver, mother, and currently as an English Language Director working with international students. Her session will be filled with tips and tools to set limits with love and apply Love and Logic strategies to the most challenging students. - Becoming a Transformer
- Sharing Control You Never Had
- Whose Problem Is It Anyway?
- Avoiding the Savior Syndrome
- Replacing Sarcasm with Empathy
- 7 C’s We All Need To Succeed

This session is repeated from Monday afternoon.

Brenda Bird

Brenda, a small but mighty reformed drill sergeant, has been using and sharing Love and Logic for 20 years with her husband, three sons, her students and countless other parents and teachers. She shares openly and honestly how Love and Logic saved her life, lowered her blood pressure and made her a more effective, happier teacher. Think Erma Bombeck meets Jim Fay! (You may not know who Erma Bombeck is, but, Tina Fey just didn’t seem to work!)

DAY THREE
JEDD HAFTER
All Day

Wednesday, June 27th, 2018
8:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.
Applying Love and Logic Skills In Tough Situations

Ever feel like you’re raising a kid who is immune to consequences and a master at pushing your buttons?

A veteran of 20+ years in residential treatment centers and a parent of kids with special needs and attachment disorders, Jedd Hafer has real answers and valuable insights into the toughest of situations. His honest and witty style will have you laughing as you learn and reinforce real strategies to take home and use with real (tough) kids.

You will learn:

• How to keep yourself in the best mindset to handle problems.
• How to respond and intervene when kids act out.
• How to look beyond behavior for meaning below the surface.

Don’t miss this fun and heart-filled message with one of our funniest and most moving speakers!

Jedd Hafer

Click to hear his interview! ->

Jedd Hafer has been hand-picked by Jim Fay and Dr. Charles Fay for his outstanding speaking abilities as well as his extensive experience with very challenging kids. For more than 20 years Jedd has worked with severely troubled youth in treatment centers and alternative schools where he has witnessed time after time the effectiveness of Love and Logic skills. Jedd is a father of four kids, two who are adopted out of the foster care system. His experience with challenging kids fuels his flair for training professionals and parents. He has presented to schools and organizations in 42 states and 4 countries. As a former touring professional comic, Jedd’s presentations are always filled with humor and passion, blending his own hilarious style with solid Love and Logic techniques. Check out his latest webinar, Love and Logic Strategies for Kids with Hurtful Pasts and his latest book ‘The Pocket Grandpa’.

8:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.

The Single Best Secret for Maximizing Achievement and Positive Student Behavior

Do you like to laugh and learn at the same time? Do you like presentations where you have a great time while learning good, solid skills? Would you like some easy ways to ensure students learn more at school and behave better at home? Then you will love this presentation! Sally will show you effective, practical ways to:

• Handle all discipline issues at home and school like a black belt!
• Understand what’s going on with people who make others’ lives miserable
• Reduce bullying, back talk and power struggles with kids.
• Create responsible children who do their classwork at school and chores at home
• Build and retain the kind of relationships you enjoy having with children

This is the type of workshop where the time flies, where you learn through stories and feel energized at the end of the day. Don’t be surprised if you feel a rejuvenated excitement about life in your family or school!

Sally Ogden is an energetic and charismatic teacher and speaker with thirty-two years of experience, having taught French, Spanish and Psychology in the public schools. She spent most of her tenure at Chatfield Senior High School in Jefferson County, Colorado and previously taught thirteen years in middle school. For over twenty-five years she has directed workshops and conferences for teachers and parents throughout the United States. People who have heard her speak say that a day with her flies by with lots of laughs and great stories. They leave with practical tools that they can’t wait to use. She’s even received standing ovations after presenting at required teacher in-services!

Sally is a graduate of Colorado State University, with a master’s degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Northern Colorado. In 1977, Sally was selected as the Colorado Teacher of the Year, and received an Honor Alum Award from Colorado State University. In 1998 she filmed the video, “No Thanks, I Just Had a Banana!” and followed with the book “Words Will NEVER Hurt Me: Helping Kids Handle Teasing, Bullying, and Putdowns”. After many requests from conference participants, in 2008 Sally introduced a 4 CD audio set titled: “Thank God it’s Monday!” and “Creating Peace & Joy in the Classroom and Home”.

She has been an adjunct instructor for CSU, Adams State College, University of the Pacific, and Chapman University. Ogden is trilingual, loves sports, art, photography and ballroom dancing. Sally is proud to say that her high school seniors honored her with the “Favorite-Female Teacher” title every year!

The Love and Logic Bookstore at Beaver Run Resort will be open Sunday, June 24th through Wednesday, June 27th

You will find a variety of follow-up resources in the bookstore, including the required publications for the graduate-level credit. We welcome cash, check, MasterCard, VISA, Discover, American Express and school purchase orders.

This will be a great opportunity to visit with Love and Logic representatives who can recommend the best resources for you and your family or school. Be sure to look for sale items, and we’ll even pay your shipping!

All of our products are also available on our website at: www.loveandlogic.com
FAQs

Where can I register for the conference?
There are four ways to register for the Love and Logic Educator & Parent Retreat:

1. Call 800-338-4065 and speak to one of our friendly customer care specialists.
2. Fax your registration to 800-455-7557.
4. Register by mail. Send your registration form and payment to the Love and Logic Institute:
   2207 Jackson Street, Golden, CO 80401

How do I pay the conference fee?
The conference fee is $425.00 (Early Bird Special: $395 if registered before 2/1/18). A $95.00 non-refundable deposit is due upon registration. The deposit will be deducted from the full conference fee. For those holding a spot with a deposit, the balance is due by May 25th, 2018.

We accept payment by cash, check, money order, school district purchase order, MasterCard, VISA, Discover and American Express. To register with a purchase order, please fax it along your registration form to 800-455-7557. Your name, home address, email address and phone number must be included on purchase orders. To pay by check, please make checks payable to the Love and Logic Institute, and mail them to 2207 Jackson Street, Golden, CO 80401.

Is conference attendance going to be limited?
Yes. We encourage you to sign up early to ensure yourself space at the conference. The Administrator Session on Tuesday with Jim Fay requires pre-registration.

How early can I register for the conference?
Representatives will be available between 5:00 P.M. - 7:00 P.M. Sunday evening for early registration, and at 7:00 A.M. Monday morning. Please be aware that class begins promptly at 8:00 A.M. each day. Seating is on a first-come, first-serve basis.

How will I gain access to the presentations?
Name tags will be given to each participant at check-in. They must be worn each day to enter class.

How will I recognize the Love and Logic representatives if I need help?
Look for our employees wearing name tags as well as Love and Logic shirts. Our staff is happy to help!

What is the conference attire?
Conference attire is casual.

Will I be able to hear all the speakers?
Probably not. Your conference fee guarantees excellent speakers each day. The sessions are on a first-come, first-serve basis. We encourage you to arrive early each day to ensure a spot in the session of your choice.
FAQs

What if I make a wrong choice of speakers?
Please feel free to change the presentation you are attending, as long as there is room in another session. You need only to make a notation of your change on your reaction sheet.

How will I know where to find the session I want to attend?
The room schedule will be handed out at registration and detailed in your conference workbook. You will be advised of any changes.

Will people who are not attending the conference be able to have lunch with me?
Yes, friends and family are welcome to join any credentialed attendees at their own expense.

What if I have special diet needs?
There will be plenty of options to accommodate vegetarian diets and food allergies. Please notate on registration form or notify us before April 30th, 2018.

When will I register for the college credit?
Forms describing the graduate-level credit process will be available at the conference. See page 17 for details.

What if I want a Certificate of Attendance but am not taking the class for credit?
Simply complete daily reaction sheets (found in the back of your workbook) to receive a certificate, and turn them into the Love and Logic Institute by July 31st, 2018.

How do I find Beaver Run Resort?
Denver International Airport (DEN) and the Colorado Spring Airport (COS) are served by most major airlines nationwide and internationally. Regardless of which airport you choose, you'll have a scenic drive or shuttle ride to Breckenridge, CO to take in the dramatic views. Breckenridge is located in the central Rocky Mountains of Colorado, 120 miles west of Denver, approximately 2 hours from either airport by car.

When can I check into the resort? Will I have a problem if I don’t get checked out of my room early on the last day of the conference?
Check-in time is 4:00 P.M. Checkout time is 11:00 A.M.

What is the cutoff date for room reservations at the resort?
The room block is good until June 21st, 2018 or until our room block is full.

What will I do if I have a problem with my lodging?
If for any reason you have problems with lodging registration, please contact us at 800-338-4065 and we will do our best to resolve the problem.

Does Love and Logic have childcare options at Beaver Run Resort?
Please call us at 800-338-4065 for details about childcare options or visit this page for a list of options.
Summit County has some of the most beautiful mountains in the country, and we hope you enjoy your visit, but some of the very features that make our county so attractive may cause problems. The average altitude in Breckenridge is over 9,600 feet.

You will probably notice that your breathing is faster or deeper, you have an increased heart rate, and you may feel short of breath, especially when you exercise. This is the body’s first and most effective response to altitude. Being in good physical condition has no bearing on one’s ability to acclimate. 20%-30% of all visitors will have some altitude illness symptoms.

Ultraviolet rays from the sun are stronger at this altitude. No matter how tan you may be, you should use a sunblock with a minimum SPF rating of 15. Sunburn of the eyes is also a real danger. Wear sunglasses with UV protection, even on cloudy or overcast days.

How you can improve acclimation to altitude:

• Increase fluid intake — drink 8 to 12 glasses of water a day. Water and juices are better than tea, coffee, soft drinks or alcohol.
• Decrease salt intake.
• Increase carbohydrate intake, such as pasta, rice and pancakes. Decrease protein intake, such as steak and eggs.
• Reduce alcohol and caffeine — 1 drink at high altitude does the work of 2.
• Tranquilizers and sleeping pills slow down breathing and should be avoided.

Symptoms of altitude illness:

Mild Symptoms
Headache, nausea, poor appetite, run-down feeling, shortness of breath with exertion. Altitude illness feels very much like an allergy or the flu. We recommend Tylenol, Ibuprofen or Aspirin for headache; Dramamine or Emetrol for nausea and lots of water. These symptoms will usually go away in a day or two.

Moderate Symptoms
When a symptom such as a headache is not relieved by Tylenol, Ibuprofen or Aspirin, or if vomiting, raspy cough or weakness occur, we recommend you seek medical care.

Severe Symptoms
Weak cough, disoriented “leave me alone” feeling, too weak to eat or get up, fingernails or lips blue in color, shortness of breath at rest, balance and/or coordination problems — seek medical help IMMEDIATELY!
